Falmouth, June 1st 1820.

Capt. Moses Chase.

Sir, You will proceed from hence with the Brig Sarah Herrick on a whaling voyage to the coast of Virginia, commonly called the southern ground; and there cruise one month, and as much longer as you may think best; from thence, you will go to the Western Islands' whaling ground, & there cruise till October, or as much longer as your judgement shall direct; from thence if you shall have gotten any oil, you will touch at one of the Western or Cape de Verde Islands & ship your oil to me at Falmth or to Nantucket, to the care of William Coffin Esq. or to N. Bedford, to the care of Sans Wing, or to N. York, to the care of Mess. Fish & Grinnell, or to Boston, to the care of Isaac & Stephen Jenney, or to Portsmouth, to the care of J. & S. Jenney. — You will not return with the Brig unless you obtain Four Hundred Bbls. Oil, or upwards, till the time for which you are fitted has expired, or your provisions are all consumed. From the Western & Cape de Verde Islands, if you shall not have obtained a full cargo of oil, you will proceed to any other place or coast as your judgement may dictate, and cruise till your provisions are consumed, or your Brig full of oil.

Over 3

You are hereby authorised to draw Bills on me for any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, at ten days sight, for any thing that may be wanted on board the Brig Sarah Herrick. If you should be shipwrecked, you are authorised to draw for the amount of your repairs &c.

You are earnestly requested to write to me every opportunity that presents. When the Brig's bands get under water you will paint them with verdigris once a month at least.

You are further requested to deliver the clothes out of the Stow Chest to any of your crew, that in your opinion may need them, & charge them with the price marked upon each article.

Should you obtain any oil on the Southern ground, if you think proper you may touch at Norfolk & ship it home, as before directed.

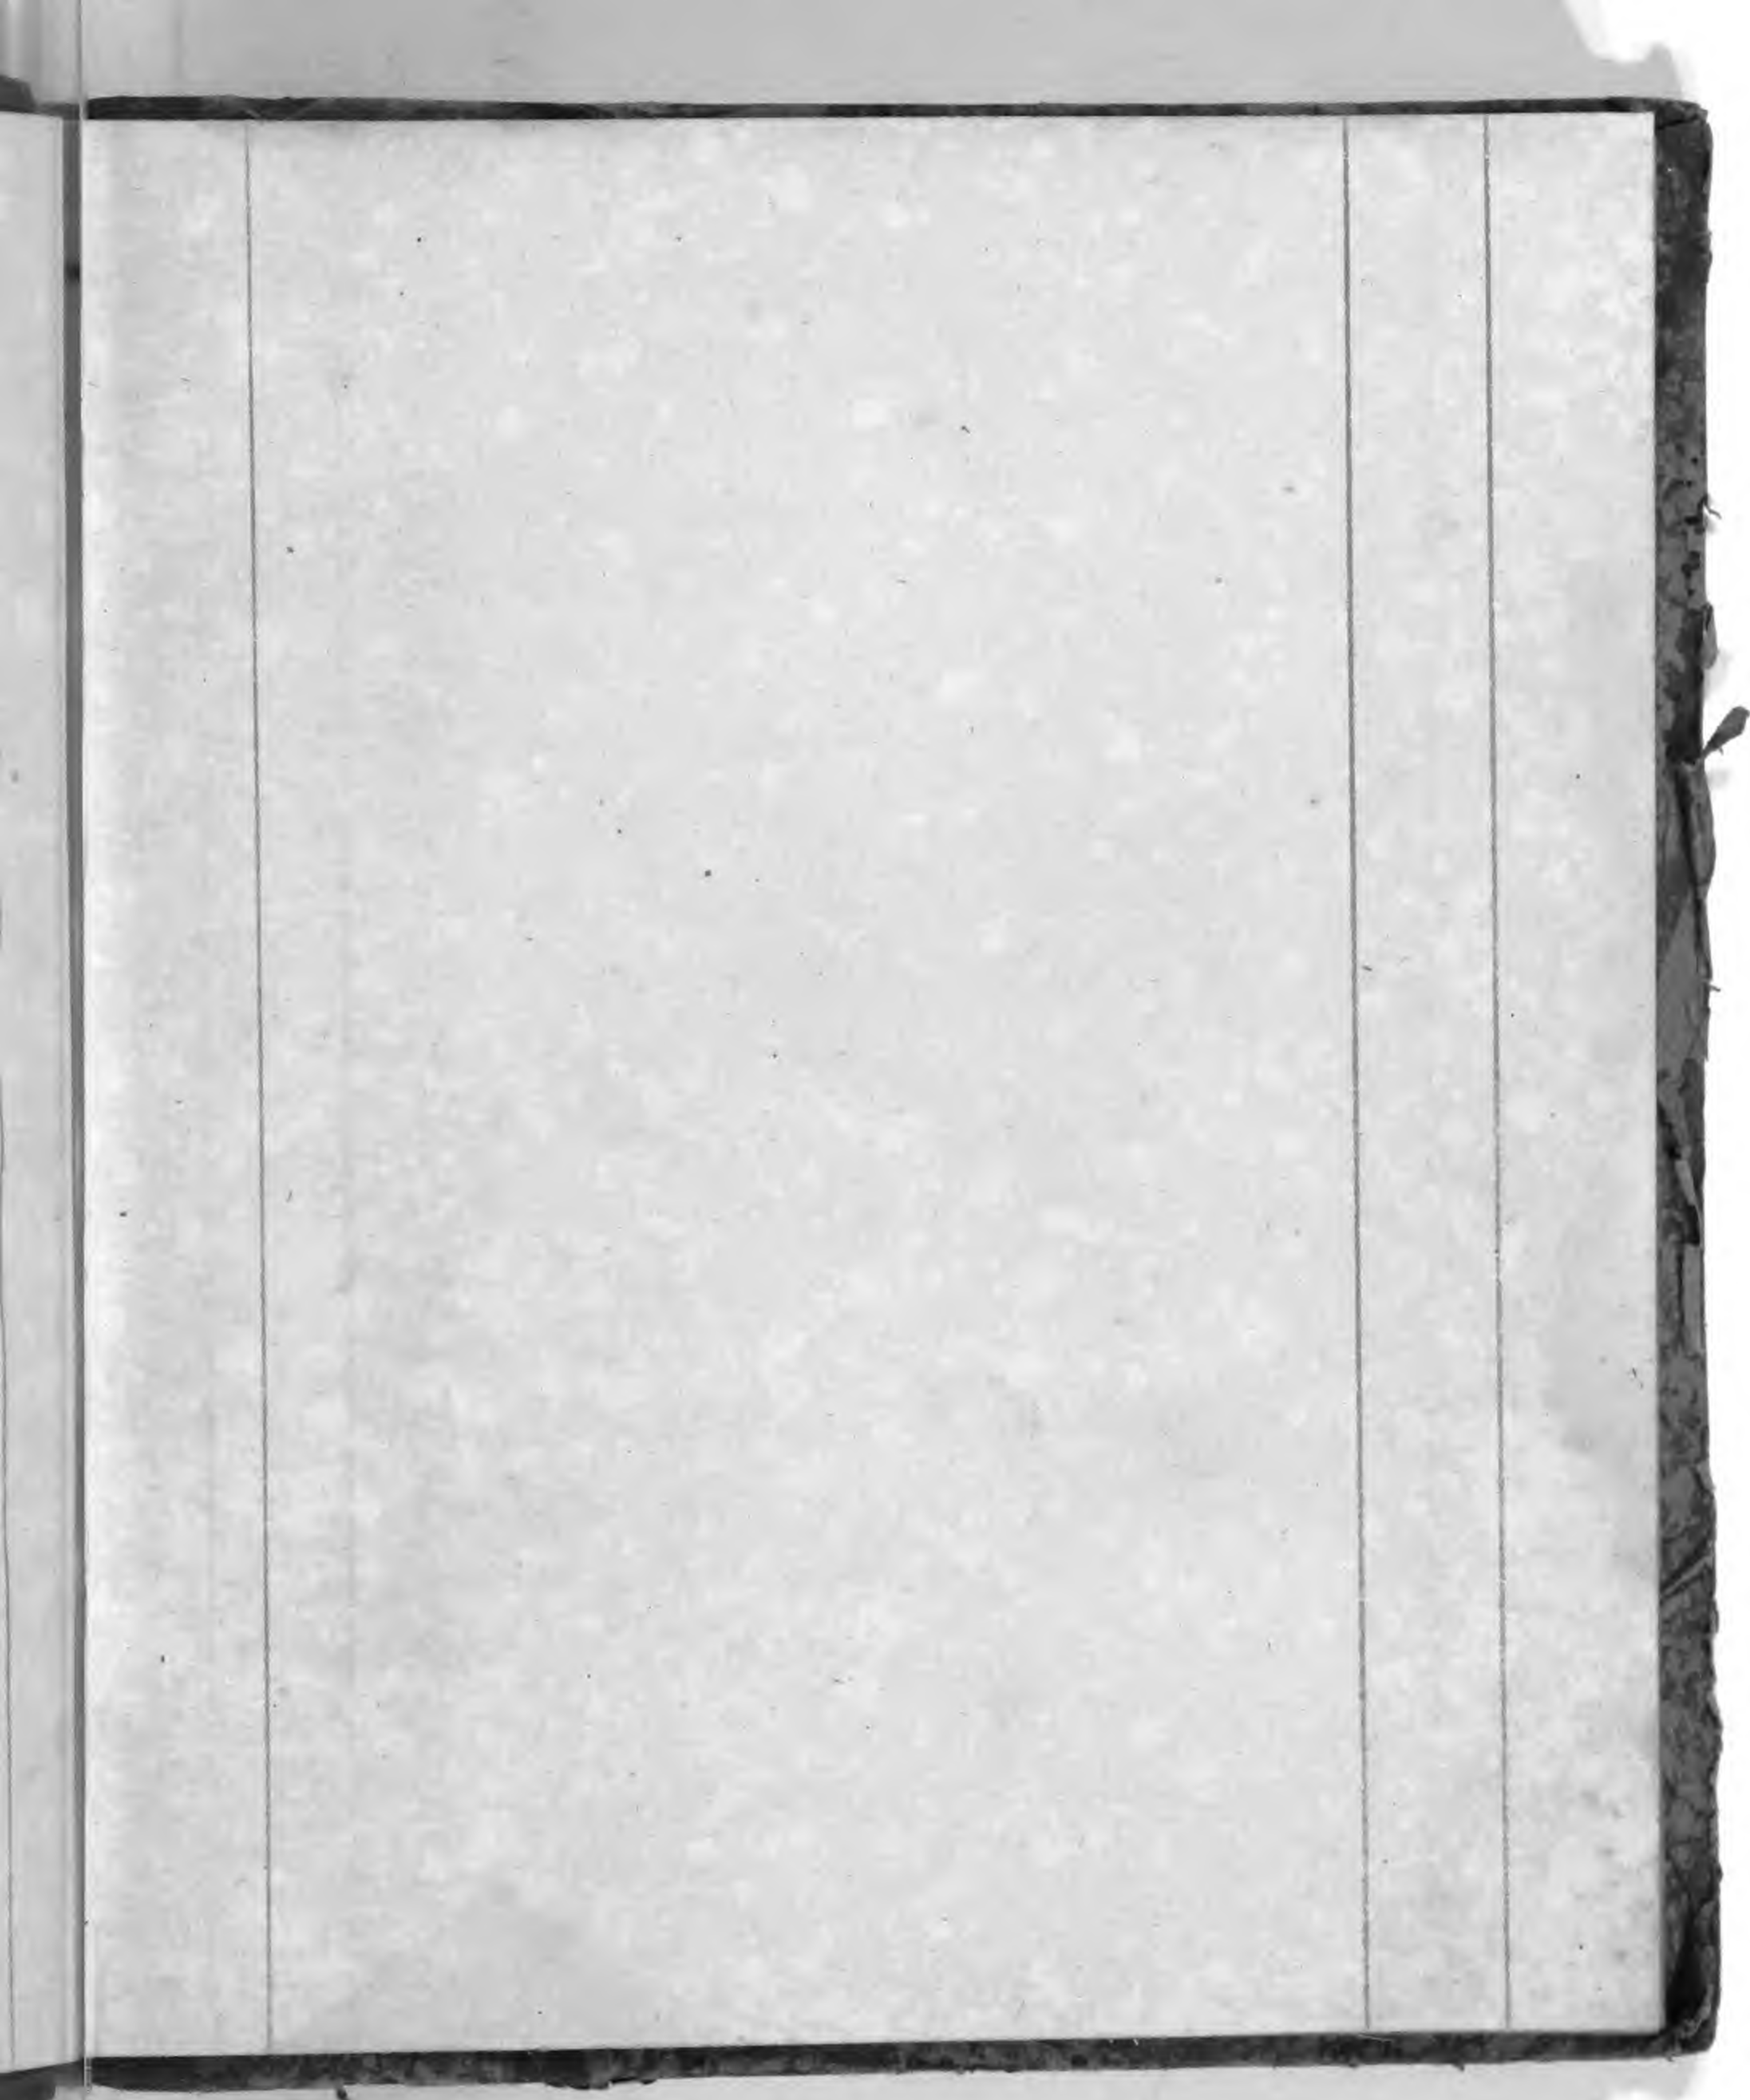

You will keep a regular Log Book & Board, and if any misfortune should befall your vessel, you will regularly protest at the first port at which you arrive.

Yours respectfully J. Swift
